

LAMP:The Kerala Travel Guide

Relax the mind, in God's Own Country

Welcome to LAMP

by Lakshmi, Aditya, Minnah and Pranav

Your trusted guide for your next trip to Kerala

Lamp

This project is a comprehensive travel guide tailored to showcase and promote the diverse travel opportunities in Kerala, India. Designed with a focus on both usability and aesthetics, the platform serves as a digital gateway for tourists seeking information, inspiration, and resources for planning their visit to "God's Own Country." The website consolidates a wide range of services and content into a centralized system, making it convenient for users to explore destinations, book accommodations, discover local activities, and connect with verified travel services. Through our website, you can find out the culture and heritage of each district, activities to take part in, information about festivals and cultural events you don't want to miss. Get information on different places and historically significant locations to visit.

The homepage acts as an engaging visual introduction, featuring immersive media like background videos and high-resolution images that highlight Kerala's landscapes, culture, and heritage. Navigation is streamlined to allow quick access to various sections, including Attractions, Activities, Events and Festivals and so on. The About Kerala section gives users a quick cultural and visual introduction to Kerala.

Each module is populated with curated content: detailed descriptions of tourist hotspots, cultural events, eco-tourism opportunities, wellness options like Ayurveda, and local experiences such as houseboat stays and hill station retreats. Integrated contact details and booking links for hotels and travel operators are provided to reduce user friction and increase booking efficiency. Overall, the site functions as an end-to-end guide for domestic and international travelers visiting Kerala.

Munnar – The Land of Misty Hills

Munnar, nestled in the Western Ghats, is one of Kerala's most captivating hill stations. Known for its endless tea plantations, rolling hills, and misty landscapes, Munnar offers a refreshing escape from the bustle of city life. The region's cool climate, winding roads, and scenic viewpoints like Top Station and Echo Point make it a paradise for nature lovers and photographers. The Eravikulam National Park, home to the endangered Nilgiri Tahr, is a must-visit for wildlife enthusiasts. Tea lovers can explore the Tata Tea Museum to learn about the region's rich tea heritage. Adventure seekers can go trekking, rock climbing, or cycling through the hilly terrain. With its charming homestays and luxury resorts, Munnar is also a favorite among honeymooners. Whether you seek solitude, scenic beauty or adventure, Munnar captures your heart with its timeless charm and breathtaking vistas.

Location »

Alleppey (Alappuzha) – The Backwater Paradise

Alleppey, often hailed as the "Venice of the East", is the heart of Kerala's iconic backwater tourism. Crisscrossed by a network of canals, lagoons, and lakes, this serene town offers an unforgettable experience through houseboat cruises on the vast Vembanad Lake. As you glide over the tranquil waters, you'll witness the beauty of lush green paddy fields, swaying coconut palms, and traditional village life unfolding along the banks. The backwaters of Alleppey are best experienced at a slow pace, letting the peace and charm of the region sink in. Apart from houseboats, the region is known for coir industries, temples, and the spectacular Nehru Trophy Snake Boat Race held annually.

Heritages

Wellness & Ayurveda

Adventures

Adventures in Kerala - Explore Kerala Beyond the Scenic

Whether by land, air, or water – Kerala offers countless ways to embrace the wild and experience nature at its most thrilling.

Trekking & Camping

- Agasthyakoodam - One of Kerala's highest peaks, known for rich biodiversity and spiritual importance. Entry is restricted to protect the ecosystem.
- Chembra Peak - Famous for its heart-shaped lake, perfect for beginner trekkers and scenic photography.
- Meesapulimala - The second-highest peak in the state; offers trails through lush valleys and pine forests.

Water & Aerial Adventures

- Paragliding at Vagamon - Soar above green meadows and enjoy a bird's-eye view of the hills.
- Kayaking & Canoeing - Explore quiet canals and rivers in Alleppey and Kumarakom, great for birdwatching and nature lovers.
- Boating at Periyar Lake - Wildlife sightings like elephants and bison during a peaceful cruise through the sanctuary.
- Ashtamudi Lake - Ideal for houseboat rides and sunset boat tours.

Rock Climbing & More

- Thennala - Kerala's first eco-tourism destination with activities like rock climbing, rappelling, and mountain biking.
- Pathimala and Ramakkalmedu - Great for outdoor rock climbing and adventure trekking.

You're here : Home / Events & Festivals

Festivals

Events

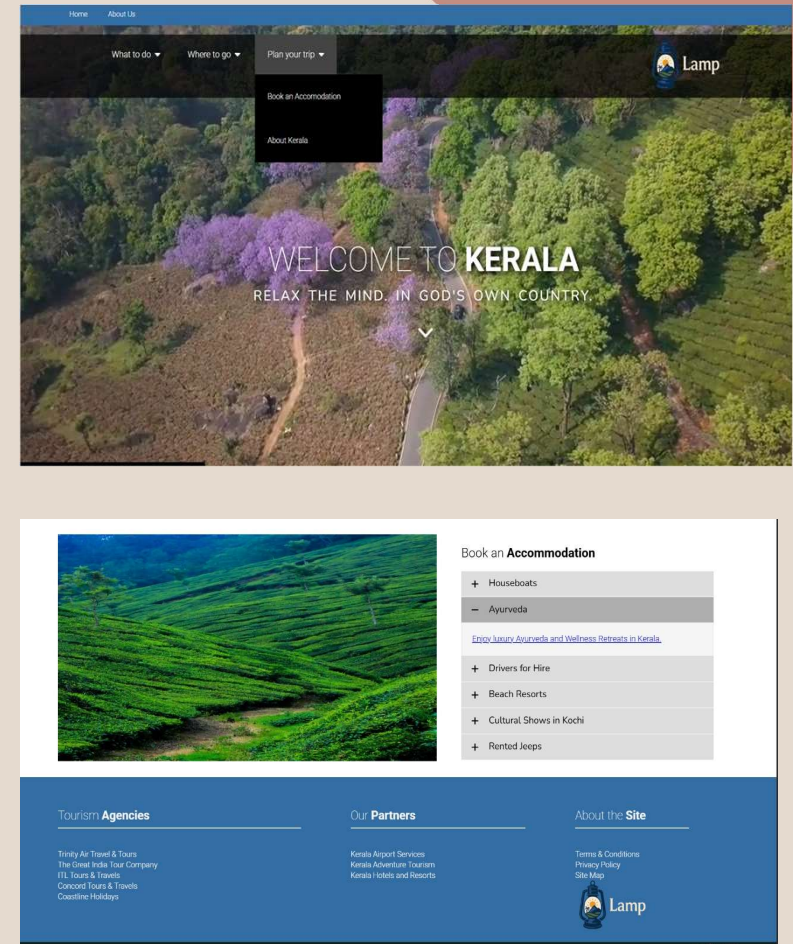

Events & Festivals of Kerala - Celebrate Culture and Spirit

Kerala's festivals are a colorful blend of devotion, tradition, and joy. Rooted in centuries-old customs, they reflect the state's rich spiritual heritage and vibrant community life.

Major Festivals of Kerala

- Onam (Aug-Sep) - Kerala's grandest harvest festival. Features floral carpets (Pookalam), traditional feasts (Onasadya), Vallam Kali (boat race), Pulikali (tiger dance), and cultural games.
- Vishu (April) - Marks the Malayalam New Year. Celebrated with Vishukkani (auspicious items arranged for viewing), firecrackers, and gift-giving.
- Thirissur Pooram (Apr-May) - A majestic temple festival with a parade of decorated elephants, traditional drumming (chenda melam), and spectacular fireworks.
- Attukal Pongala (Feb-Mar) - One of the largest women-led religious gatherings in the world, held at Attukal Bhagavathy Temple, Thiruvananthapuram.
- Theyyam (Oct-May) - A ritualistic dance form performed in North Kerala temples, involving divine impersonation, face painting, and spiritual storytelling.

Our website is linked to a number of reliable and well-established travel agencies and partners who contribute significantly to the services we offer. These partnerships ensure that visitors have access to trusted resources for booking, planning, and organizing their trips with confidence. Each link on our platform leads directly to the official website of a verified partner, allowing users to explore options for accommodations, transportation, tour packages, and other travel-related services. This integration not only adds convenience but also ensures that all bookings and arrangements are handled professionally and securely. The goal is to make your travel experience as smooth and hassle-free as possible by connecting you with experienced service providers who prioritize customer satisfaction.

Thank you

LAKSHMI
ADITYA
MINNAH
PRANAV
LAMP PVT. LTD.

